Volunteer Fox Cities Announces Change of Leadership

(Neenah, WI – April 1, 2025) – Volunteer Fox Cities is a nonprofit dedicated to strengthening the community by connecting individuals with meaningful volunteer opportunities throughout our community. The Volunteer Fox Cities Board of Directors is sharing an important leadership update with you. After years of dedicated service, Susan Vanden Heuvel has left our organization. We are incredibly grateful for her commitment to advancing volunteerism and making a lasting impact in the Fox Valley community.

As we move forward, we are grateful to have tenured consultants who have stepped in to lead Volunteer Fox Cities over the next few months, while we conduct a search for our next leader and explore new opportunities. Along with our active and dedicated board of directors, and devoted staff, we are confident in our shared ability to ensure a smooth transition and maintain the high level of service and support you have come to expect from us.

Our commitment to our mission remains as strong as ever. We are excited about the opportunities ahead to continue fostering volunteerism and strengthening our partnerships. As we enter 2025, we look forward to working on bringing programs and new initiatives that will further benefit our shared community.

Thank you to our community partners and member nonprofits for your continued collaboration and support. We value our partnerships and appreciate all that you do to make the Fox Valley a better place for all. Additionally, if you're interested in learning more about our services or would like assistance in organizing meaningful volunteer experiences for your employees, now is a great time to connect with us!

If you have any questions or would like to connect during this transition, please feel welcomed to reach out the Volunteer Fox Cities team, or our board leadership.
